Задание № 3. Read the interview. Match the paragraphs (1-5) with the questions (A-G). There are two questions you don't need.

- A. How do people become roadies?
- B. What's your typical day?
- C. What don't you like about your job?
- D. What do you like about your job?
- E. Who is "a roadie"?
- F. What countries did you visit?
- G. What is your favourite subject?

Interviewer: Matt, you are a roadie. 1. F

Matt: A roadie helps a band with concerts. I'm on tour with Coldplay this summer.

Interviewer: 2. A

Matt: I watch concerts every night! I work with great people. I love it!

Interviewer: 3. B

Matt: Go to a theatre and help small drama groups. It's a good start. You don't make money, but you learn a lot. It's a good idea to study at school, too. For example, science helps! I use electronics in my work every day. Use the Internet to find a job with bands on tour.

Interviewer: 4. G

Matt: We travel a lot in Europe when we're on tour and the journeys are very long. For example, tonight we've got a concert in Paris and tomorrow night we're in Brussels! I get up early. We travel to the next theatre in big tour buses. After we arrive, I start work. I'm a technician, so I put the light on the stage and help with it at the concert. After the concert, before we go to bed, we put everything in the tour bus again. This isn't easy because we're all tired! We go to bed very late.

Interviewer: 5. F

Matt: I miss my family. I chat to them on the phone, but sometimes I don't see them for months. That's difficult. Also, we go to lots of different cities, but we don't visit anything - we only see theatres! I want to see some famous places. The journeys are boring, but I have a great life!

Задание № 4. Read the interview again (задание № 3).
